Thoughtless.

"Don't you find it rather lonely some here," said Cholly, "with nobody to talk to?"
"Yes," she replied, with a vacant look into space, "and it's getting worse every minute."—Washington Star.

The Issue in Hawaii.

From S. L. Rumsey the Surf is in receipt of a huge supply of Honolulu papers, including issues of all the journals published in the Islands. From their personal perusal we infer that the question of holding open air musical concerts on Sunday afternoons is now the burning issue in Honolulu, although talk of annexation has not entirely subsided.—Santa Cruz Surf.

As a Favor.

Householder—James, didn't I tell you to sprinkle the lawn to-day?

James—No, sir; you said: "James, you may sprinkle the lawn to-day," and there are so many things you tell me I may do I thought it wrong to always take advantage of your kindness; but, sir, I am just as much obliged to you as though I had done it.—Boston Transcript.

Paris Buildings.

Paris has now 81,291 "houses," 885 "workshops" and 1908 buildings which are designated as "a mixture of house and workshop"—representing a value of 11,000,000,000 francs. The value of real estate has doubled since 1862. As especially notable in connection with these statistics, the Petit Journal mentions that, just as the residences in the richer quarters must have horse stables convenient, so, now, in the construction of new buildings, nearly everywhere provision is being made for properly "stabling the steel horse"—the all-pervading bicycle.
